ACCOMPANIED THE WEDDING MARCH OF COUPLE IN ILLINOIS.

Angry Step-Father Attempts to Kill Bridal Party, and is Fatally Wounded by Officer.

Taylorville, Ill., Dec. 26.—A Christmas wedding party yesterday took a tragic turn when John Belder, a carpenter, shot at his wife, the bride and groom and several police officers; shot his mother-in-law, Mrs. Edna Fisher, 68 years old, and was himself fatally wounded by one of the officers.

Mrs. Fisher will die, it is said. The bullets fired at Mrs. Belder, the bride and groom and the policemen went wide of the mark. After the excitement had subsided the wedding ceremony was carried out.

Belder, who is alleged to have had a grudge against his wife, went to the home of Mrs. Fisher, where the wedding of Belder's stepdaughter, Miss Elsie Bates, to Ora Redfern was about to take place.

Instead of taking a seat with the rest of the bridal party, Belder drew a revolver and fired three ineffective shots at his wife. She ran out the back door, closely followed by Belder. The frightened guests retreated with the exception of Mrs. Fisher, and the bride and groom sought to hide in rooms on the upper floor. Going to the room occupied by Mrs. Fisher, Belder fired six times through the door. The first bullet took effect in the abdomen. She finally crawled out of the window and escaped to the home of Dr. A. F. Turner. She was later taken to the hospital.

After shooting Mrs. Fisher Belder went to the room in which Miss Bates and Redfern had sought refuge. He fired five shots, none of which took effect. The bridal couple escaped through a window to the home of a neighbor.

In the meantime the police were notified. Chief Linkard and three men hurried to the house. Belder came to the door and fired five shots at the officers, but none was effective. Deputy Ben Davis retaliated by firing at him with a shotgun and Officer Chester fired with his revolver and Belder retreated into the rear of the residence.

D. C. Kearns, slipping into the house, found Belder with a bullet wound near the heart, but heavily armed and preparing to make it a finish fight. Kearns effected a capture by pretending he had come to assist Belder. The latter then was removed to a hospital.

Hitchcock refused to give any details as to his reason for having the gem imbedded in his flesh.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by local applications. Send for circulars, free.

CHINESE NEW YEAR CHANGES WITH FALL OF MANCHU DYNASTY

Chicago, Dec. 26.—Chicago Chinese are to celebrate the dawn of the new year for the first time on January 1. The old and familiar sights which usually attended the celebration of the Chinese new year here in February, are to be passed next year. The celebration also will be changed to the new Christian era, when the Chinese propose celebrating the event according to the customs of Americans and at the same time.

With the fall of the Manchu dynasty the old calendar of the Ming dynasty, it is said, will be followed no longer and hereafter January 1 will become the date for the beginning of the new year with all Chinese.

"For three years I was troubled with catarrh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none did me any good.
A friend told me of Hood's Sarsapa-medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suf-

SPENT BY PRESIDENT WILLARD FOR IMPROVEMENT OF THE B. & O.

First Train Passed Through Tunnel at Summit of Allegheny Mountains Christmas Noon.

President Daniel Willard of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, presented the board of directors of the company with a unique Christmas gift yesterday when the new double track Sand Patch tunnel was opened for train operation. Opening the tunnel marks practically the completion of the engineering program of improvement inaugurated by Mr. Willard just three years ago when he became president of the Baltimore and Ohio and began the construction of a third track across the Allegheny Mountains and general rehabilitation of the property through the enlargement of facilities and purchase of new equipment at a cost in round figures of $60,000,000.

The first train passed through Sand Patch Tunnel at noon. The new tunnel is at the summit of the Allegheny Mountains, between Sand Patch and Manilla, Pa., 30 miles west of Cumberland. Its cost was approximately $1,250,000. The improvement being regarded as one of the greatest engineering feats accomplished in this country and the attention of railroad builders throughout the world has been attracted to it. The improvement was authorized by the Baltimore and Ohio directors on March 13, 1911, work having been started at once and pushed with remarkable progress. A total of 700,000 cubic yards of earth was excavated, at the rate of about 600 yards a day, an average of 1,500 men having been employed during the construction of the tunnel.

The new tunnel is of standard Baltimore and Ohio design, about 4,000 feet long with a width of 31 feet and height of 23 feet. It is double track throughout, lined with concrete to a depth of 3 feet, has a brick roof and is equipped with a modern system of ventilation. Seven thousand cubic feet of concrete and two million bricks were used in lining the tunnel.
Though at a lower level it parallels a single track tunnel built in 1871 and provides three tracks through the mountains. The new line joins the present ones in the vicinity of Manilla on the east and Sand Patch on the west.

The tunnel was built by H. S. Kerbaugh, Inc., of Philadelphia, under the supervision of F. F. Stuart, Chief Engineer Paul Riddler, principal assistant engineer, and D. P. Janney, resident engineer of the B. & O.

MILLER LOSES A SUIT FOR $1000
AT PORTSMOUTH

William M. Miller, of Granville, who was a leader in the Licking County local option campaign, former publisher of the Zanesville Times-Recorder and who was part owner and manager of the Portsmouth Blade during the wet and dry campaign last year, lost $1,000 several days ago when he lost the case brought against the Business Men's League of Portsmouth.

Miller claimed in his suit that the wets owed him $1,000 for advertising during the wet and dry campaign. The business men in their answer admitted having contracted the advertising bill, but alleged that they had an oral contract with the publisher that he should remain neutral during the campaign. They also claimed that he violated this by advocating the dry cause about two weeks before the election. The county went wet. The decision was delivered by Judge Korn.

THE HUMAN PROCESSION

By O. Terrence.

TODAY IS THE FESTIVAL OF ST. STEPHEN, FIRST MARTYR

In the calendars of the Roman Catholic and Anglican churches today is set aside as the festival of St.
Stephen, Christianity's first martyr, who was stoned to death because of his adherence to the new faith. Stephen was one of the first seven deacons who were chosen by the new church in Jerusalem at the instance of the apostles. He is described as "a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit," who did "great wonders and signs among the people."

The fate of St. Stephen was that of many martyrs of diverse religious and economic creeds in all lands and ages. Unable to answer Stephen's arguments, because they could not withstand "the wisdom and the spirit that spoke," his adversaries appealed to force. Stephen was beaten before the Sanhedrin, charged with blasphemy against Moses and Jehovah. Unrepentant and defiant, Stephen denounced the chief priests and accused them of the "murder of the Just One." Says a chronicle: "Stephen's judges were stung with anger and gnashed their teeth against him." The answer of the accused was to gaze upward and cry: "Behold, see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God." At this without being permitted to complete his speech, Stephen was hurried without the city walls and there stoned to death. St. Stephen's official function was rather the "serving of tables," than the ministry of the word, but the narrative of the Book of Acts shows him to have been a powerful and forceful preacher.

In England today is known as Boxing Day, it being the day on which Christmas boxes were solicited and collected and also for the distribution of Christmas boxes among servants. Of late years there has been a decided tendency in England, Australia and other parts of the empire to give a liberal interpretation to the day by holding boxing matches. The Johnson-Burns heavyweight championship battle four years ago, in Australia, was a Boxing Day event, and today, as in past years, numerous pugilistic encounters will be witnessed in London, Sydney, Cape Town and many other cities.

Today is the twentieth anniversary of the birth of Francesco Giuseppe Bressani, a famous missionary to the Indians of Canada, and the hero of many thrilling adventures among the aborigines of the northern wilderness. Bressani was born in Rome, Dec. 24, 1812, and went to Canada as a young man to carry Christianity to the redskins. For nine years he labored among the Hurons, who received him hospitaly and he converted many of them. In the tenth year of his work in Canada he was taken by the Iroquois, by whom he was ill-treated, and afterward sold as a slave to the Dutch.
His bondage continued until 1844, when he was ransomed. On his return to Italy he published a book dealing with his experiences and the work of the Jesuit missionaries among the Canadian Aborigines.

One of the worst "blizzards" ever known in the southern part of the United States began 32 years ago today. The thermometer went below freezing point everywhere in the South, even in the extreme lower part of Florida.

INGRATITUDE

All numbered is my reason, and frigid my feet! I'm tired of this season of good things to eat! I'm weary of turkey, I've soured upon goose, my insides are jerky, my wishbone is loose. I've gorged up pudding until I would die; I'm dodging, eluding all manner of pie. Although I'm a dandy at punishing grub, I'm tired of the candy that comes by the tub; the oysters, the dressing, the ice cream and cake, all are distressing, and give me an ache. Rich grub sends a shiver through surfeited men; I'm longing for liver and onions again. My system is aching, and won't be denied, for fried eggs and bacon and spud on the side.
Would make my soul chirrup to fill up once more on buckwheat and syrup and sauerkraut gailore, but that would be treason, of style and abuse; at this bughouse season it's turkey and goose. It's turkey that's roasted, and goose that is baked, and things that are roasted, and things that are baked; it's oysters and gravy and stuffing and jam, and spaghetti wavy, with which we cream. My nerves all a-quiver, I sit in my den, and long for plain liver and onions again!

PHONEY MONEY
MOLDS FOUND IN OLD WELL

Canton, Dec. 26.—While cleaning out an old well nine miles north of here yesterday, Daniel Hoover, Francis Flory and Carl Treising hit what they thought was either a "latent States mint or a hiding place for Santa Claus treasure. They dug out $48 and a large quantity of nickels and quarters. Further research brought out copper molds.
Then they realized that they had found counterfeit money and the dies with which it is made. They brought their find to Sheriff Overlin here this morning.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Healthful Peanut Butter.
A health food authority says that peanut butter, properly made, is both butter and meat, containing enough fat and protein if an average quantity of bread and milk is included in the dietary. But beware of peanut butter that has been excessively roasted, so that the fat has been converted into poisonous acids and the albumen coagulated so as to make it largely unassimila-ble and irritating. Dry shelled peanuts for several hours in an oven at a temperature of 155 F.
No brown parts should appear.
After removing the hulls soak twelve hours or more and grind through a fine food mill.

ance.

Mrs. Bagley sat down before an open grate to rest. Her dress caught fire.
She fell screaming on the floor by Bagley's bed, but he, with a broken knee cap, was unable to assist her.
Two men passing by the house heard the woman's screams and rushing in extinguished the fire.

ON SECOND THOUGHT.

If you pay a good deal of attention to the advice of others the chances are that you do not amount to much.

When a man is in doubt he orders pie. When he is in great doubt he orders apple pie.

Some are forgotten. Others never were discovered.

A man tucks a letter away in a pigeon hole as soon as it is read, but he permits a telegram to lie conspicuously on his desk.

Henry Watterson has called attention to the fact that one cannot unlock a night latch with a cork-screw.
There is also reasonable assurance for the assertion that one cannot shave himself with a step ladder.

SOCIETY

The Kudrila Klub club was entertained by Mrs. O. C. Brown, 42 Pearl street. The house was decorated with Christmas greens. After an afternoon spent with the needles refreshments were served the following: Misses Mary Alice Goodin, Esther Stage, Riggs, Winifred McDaniel, Messrs.
Frederic Brown, Oscar Eckelberry, Messdames Archie Goodin, Ennelet McDaniel, Walter Stage, Charles Warden, Ernest Cochran, John Nicholas.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ernest Cochran of 197 Wilson street.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Courson celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at their beautiful home on North street, Jacksonville, December twenty-third, with a bountiful turkey dinner to about thirty of their relatives and friends.

Among those present were Mrs.
Ellen Haight and Mrs. Harriet Moul-er of Thornville, Mrs. Amos Courson of Newark, Mr. and Mrs. George Osborn of Linville, Mr. and Mrs. P. E.
Bunge of Newark, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Lees, Russell Lees, Elsa Lees and Denzel Lees of Union Station, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Courson of Jacksonville.
Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clark of Columbus, Miss Rebecca and Hannah Crow of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Grove and Miss Mildred Grove of near Newark, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Hillman of Pleasant Chapel.

All at the close of the day's enjoyment and all had extended congratulations to the bride and groom of fifty years they departed for their respective homes, feeling they were most fortunate in having had the pleasure of joining in celebrating this event that happens in so few of our lives.

Mrs. J. D. Evans of 212 Hoover street will be hostess to the members of the Unity Club on Friday evening, December 27.

Mr. and Mrs. K. I. Dickerson of Stevens street entertained a number of out of town relatives at Christmas dinner Wednesday, including Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dickerson, Mrs. Nicholas Miss Gertrude Nicholas, Arthur Nicholas of Zanesville, and Mrs. Mary Dickerson, mother of Mr. Dickerson who has been visiting here from Zanesville for several weeks.

Those who visited the Y. M. C. A.
Monday night to hear the Newark Symphony orchestra in their concert were well repaid for their time and money. It is the consensus of opinion of all that were present that this was one of the best musical treats that has ever been given by local talent.

The Orchestra was composed of the violin pupils of Prof. Shaw, augmented by the Messrs. J. E. and Paul Hawkins, saxophone and clarinet; William

Now that discussion of the matter practically has ceased, what was the objection to the man who parted his hair in the middle?

The experience of a Connecticut man who had a bean in his ear 45 years was not remarkable. A married man has a "bug" placed in his nearly every day.

Inquiry has also been made for the old-fashioned man who made a fly blister to do the work of an under-shirt.

A woman can't win a man by merely making him comfortable. But she can often do so by keeping him guessing.

Reynolds, cornet; George Risher, cornet; Otis Riggs, trombone; Carl Nutter, drums; K. I. Dickerson, flute, and the Misses Julia Sells and Bessie Larkins, piano, making a total of twenty-five instruments.

The ensemble numbers were handled in an excellent manner under the leadership of Prof. Shaw, and the violin solos by Carl Ankele, Donald Kissane, Guy Risher, showed wonderful technic and reflected great credit upon our local instructor of violin, Professor Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Kline of Cedar street entertained a number of friends at Christmas dinner yesterday, among those participating being Mr. and Mrs.
C. O. Eagle and family, Mr. and Mrs.
F. W. Wable, Mrs. Harvey G. Miller, Mrs. Charles Gather and O. G. Warrington and family.

Mrs. Rinehart entertained the Art embroidery club at her home on Wednesday afternoon. After several hours of needle work, refreshments were served by the hostess. Each received a little Christmas remembrance from the hostess. The Christmas box was then opened, and a joyful time was had by all. Mrs. Sunderland will entertain next at her home January 2, 1913.

The Alfretha club entertained with a pretty Christmas dance last night at Assembly Hall. Marsh's orchestra furnished the dance program, and a turkey supper was served at 10:30 in the balcony.

united in wedlock Mr. John F. James of Granville, and Miss Florence Wells of Outville. They were attended by

RAILWAY OFFICIAL WHO IS TO MARRY MISS HELEN GOULD has not been definitely set, but is expected to be some time next month.

Mr. Shepard, now an active railroad man, might have become a prominent figure in big league baseball, as his great work as catcher of the Say-attracted wide attention.

Theatre Employees Present Manager With Handsome Xmas Presents

Manager F. E. Johnson of the Auditorium had an unexpected visit from Santa Claus during the intermission between the third and fourth acts of "The Shepherd of the Hills" production last evening. Santa was assisted by the stage hands of the theatre, who expressed through one of their number, their appreciation of the many kindnesses and courtesies that the genial manager has extended to them during the past year, and then presented him a handsome leather rocker. The ushers of the theatre did not forget the manager, and as soon as Mr. Johnson had recovered his composure, they presented him with a smoking set.

Former Countess to Marry Boston Banker

Mrs. Alice Copley Thaw, former Countess of Yarmouth and favorite sister of Harry K. Thaw, is to be the bride of Geoffrey W. Whitney, a Boston banker and broker. She has opened a new home in Washington, and it is expected that she will assume her former position in Pittsburg, Washington and New York society. Her life with her titled but debt-ridden husband was very unhappy, and she was never very cordially received by Yarmouth's family. When Thaw shot Stanford White, and Mrs. Copley Thaw defended his action, her husband's family was thoroughly angered.

Later the countess secured a divorce.

the winter and spring months is pneumonia. Its advance agents are colds and grip. In any attack by one of these maladies, no time should be lost in taking the best medicine obtainable to drive it off. Countless thousands have found this to be Dr.

PROF. MITCHELL CRITICALLY ILL; DELAYS RECITAL

A telegram received this morning from the bedside of Prof. R. E.
Mitchell of Fronton, by President Fred Kirkpatrick of the Newark Choral Union, tells of the serious illness of the director of music of the Lyon revival party. During the final week of the Parkersburg campaign, which closed Sunday, Prof.
Mitchell was threatened with pneumonia, and the brief rest between the strenuous campaign and the excitement of Christmas was not sufficient to enable proper attention to his illness.

As soon as the message was received, Mr. Kirkpatrick announced that the concert recital, which was to have been given in the High School Auditorium New Year's Eve by Prof. Mitchell and a number of artists would have to be postponed indefinitely. The fact that Prof.
Mitchell is ill may interfere seriously with the proposed Cleveland campaign of Dr. Lyon, which is to open Jan. 5, for six weeks, and in the event Prof. Mitchell recovers in time to aid in the revival work in that city, it will be impossible for the local recital to be held until some time in February.

Those who have already purchased tickets for the concert can have the same redeemed by returning to the person from whom the purchase was made.

IF IT DIDN'T FIT YOU, HURRY AND CHANGE IT

The post-Christmas shopping season, while not as long as the pre-Christmas season, according to a local merchant, is just as exciting and busy, with the additional advantage that there is but little financial exchange. During the next two days the local merchants will be forced to retain their Christmas assistants, to make necessary exchanges in Chris-mas gifts. Gloves that range from two sizes too small to three sizes too large, stockings that are — we beg your pardon — and many other gifts which would otherwise be useless, will be run through the post-Christmas mill and smiles restored to the worried brows of their owners. The only redeeming feature of the after-Christmas excitement is that it makes the decrease in interest more gradual, and offers some excuse for the fellow who didn't "do his Xmas shopping early."

COLLIER'S KINSMAN LEADING IN FIGHT AGAINST VICE RING

Despatches from Portland, Oregon, tell of the appointment of Deputy District Attorney Collier of that city, to direct the investigation of what has been called the "Pacific Coast Vice Ring," recent revelations of which were made in the Oregon city. Mr. Collier is a cousin of Safety Director Wayne Collier of this city and has been active in the prosecution of vicious rings in the western state. As a result of his work, thirty indictments have already been returned, involving some men of extensive reputations, and more arrests are assured.

Famous "Pint of Cough Syrup" Receipt

No Better Remedy at Any Price.
Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of granulated sugar and 12 pint of warm water and stir for two minutes.
Put 2 1/2 ounces of pure Pinex (thirty cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of $2. It never spoils.
Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold immediately, and will usually stop the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a constipated and a pleasing taste. Also excellent for bronchial trouble, throat tickle, sore throat, whooping cough, and an unquenchable dryness of the throat and chest.
This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (or strained honey) is a prime favorite in hundreds of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, though never successfully. If you try it, use only genuine Pinex, which is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in quinine and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this recipe.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Why the Horse
Doesn't Like
The Camel

The Horse Was Changed to a Camel.

JACK and Eveira had been talking about the camel to daddy. "Ah," said daddy, "that reminds me of a story which you may like to hear. The horse, you know, does not like the camel. The Arabs have a story to account for it."

"According to this, handsome and swift as he was, the horse was not satisfied. He was forever complaining."

"One day as he was browsing in an oasis, a green island in the desert, the angel Gabriel, who is the friend of all animals, appeared to the horse."

"I have long heard your complaints," said the angel. "What is it you would have?"

"The horse replied, 'I would have Allah make me with feet that can pass swiftly and surely over the sands of the desert, give me a long neck so that I can comfortably nibble the short grass on the ground, give me a short tail and mane so that I may no more be troubled with thorns and change the shape of my back so that the burdens I am forced to bear will not slip off so easily.'"

"It is not wise to find fault with the work of Allah," said the angel. "He has already done much for you."

"But the horse was ungrateful, and so Gabriel vanished and took his complaint straight up to the throne where Allah sits in paradise, surrounded by his holy ones."

"And Allah was grieved when he heard that the horse was discontented, but he said to Gabriel, 'Let his prayer be granted.'"

"And Gabriel, turning, flew swiftly down through the millions of miles of blue space that divide heaven and earth."

"And when he reached the oasis in the desert where the horse was pasturing he said: 'Allah grants your prayer. It shall be with you as you have asked.' And in the twinkling of an eye the horse was changed."

"And chancing to glance down in the pool at the reflection of his new self in the water the horse started, and so since then has every horse started when he first saw the camel, for the discontented horse had been changed to a camel."

"Oh, I do not wish to look like this," the camel cried.

"It is too late," replied Gabriel. "As you have chosen, so must you be. Those big soft feet and long legs will carry you swiftly and safely over the sand. That hump on your back will bear loads comfortably, and the long neck will allow you to browse when and where you like."

"All this was as the angel said, but that camel which became the father of all camels has left his complaining disposition to his children, for to this day, when the camel has nothing else to do, you hear him grunting and grunting."

President-Elect Has Grippe Attack

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 26.—More as a precaution than as a consequence of his slight illness, President-elect Wilson decided to stay in his room all day today so as to not expose himself. He had his appointments transferred from the state house to his home here.

The governor had been fighting what is thought was a mere cold since Monday, but he learned today from his physician, Dr. James Carnochan, that he had met and conquered a second attack of grippe.

The governor went a restful night and said he felt much better today. Nevertheless he took his physician's advice about staying in his room. The doctor pronounced Dr. Wilson well enough however to make the trip to-morrow to Staunton, Va.

There are Uncle Heinie and the Katzenjammer Kids in this Funny Paper. CHURCHES TO REMEMBER JOYFUL SEASON

Public and Private Charity Were Demonstrated Wed- nesday and Many Hearts Were Gladdened by Kindly Gifts, Given in the Spirit of Good Will.

About the best Christmas that has ever been celebrated at the Licking Children's Home was that of this year. On Tuesday evening in the chapel of the school, a very novel entertainment was given by the pupils to a crowded house, showing the interest the people of Newark are taking in the orphans. The house was decorated gaily with the Christmas decorations of holly, mis- tletoe and Christmas bells. One of the prettiest features was the 16- foot Christmas tree, which was la- den with pretty tinsel ornaments and toys. Each child received nu- merous toys, candy and fruit and nuts, while the visitors also received nuts and candy.

A very appetizing dinner was served the children, which had been do- nated by patrons of the institution, who more than bountifully provided for the children. Each donor was more than liberal and willing to do his part. The menu follows:

- Turkey with Dressing.
Gravy.
Mashed Potatoes.
Bread. Butter. Milk.
Celery. Pickles. Cranberries.
Grapes. Oranges. Candy. Nuts.
Peaches and Cake.

The entertainment given by the children was one of the best ever given by the children of that institu- tion and displayed some very good talent. The first number on the pro- gram was a play entitled "The Great- est Day of the Year," presented by 24 boys and girls and represented "Father Time," which was greatly enjoyed by the large audience.

The next number was a song by the school, "Hark, the Herald An- gels Sing."

"The Eastern Legend," a recita- tion by Elias Oden.

A song, "Silent Night," by four boys: Ray Mitchell, James Barclay, Curdiss Mitchell and Arrie Randall.

Recitation, "The Fairest Gift," by Clarence Fairall.

Song, "Tittle," by four girls: Clara Arnold, Eva and Mary Thompson and Hazel Jeffers.

Music on the harp, Arrie Randall.

Recitation, "If I Were Santa Claus," Charles Butler.

Song, "Secrets," by four girls: Vabel Schrizley, Eva and Mary Thompson and Clara Arnold.

Song, "Joy to the World," by the school.

Miss Edna Henderson, the present teacher at the home, very efficient- ly drilled the boys and girls for their parts and deserves a great deal of credit.

Those Who Donated.
Following is a list of the donors to the happiness of the children:

SANTA CLAUS MAY PROFIT BY
EXAMPLE OF ITALIAN AVIATOR

When the last rocking horse and "Mama" doll are delivered on Christ- mas eve, Santa Claus will probably arrange to sell the old sleigh and to put the faithful but aged reindeer out to pasture. It has been rather difficult for Santa to get around in time to visit all the little boys and girls, and each year it seems as though there were twice as many stockings hang- ing over the fireplace as there was last trip. Santa has been reading about the monoplane, and it is quite possible that next year his approach will be made known by the roar of a well-oiled Gnome motor, instead of the rattle of tiny sleigh bells. For J. B. Manio, a prominent Italian aviator, has shown the way. After flying across the English Channel from Boulogne, Manio landed safely on a house-top in Palmer's Green, London, and, like the man who makes a witty remark quibly accident he avowed that he in- tended to do it.

The setting of the stops is as quick and simple as the operation of the Tabulator itself.

The Set Key completes the work of bringing every act in the operation of the Tabulator within the compass of the keyboard. It makes the operation of the Billing and Tabulating Remington as easy and as simple as ordinary typewriting.
